

Saturday Drop-in Classes and Workshops

The Saturday-Drop-in program offers morning and afternoon sessions on selected Saturdays to children and adults who wish to learn more about Nipmuc culture. Different activities will be offered on a rotating basis. Individuals can attend the morning, afternoon, or both sessions.

The majority of the sessions will be held at the Nipmuc Nation Tribal Office in Grafton, MA or, weather-permitting, at the Hassanamesit Reservation.

Nipmuc elders, artisans, historians, and others will teach the sessions.

Morning sessions are from 10am - 12:30pm

Afternoon sessions are from 1pm - 3:30pm

Lunch Break from 12-12:30pm

Classes and Activities include:

Beading Basketry Regalia Building Nipmuc History Nipmuc Language Genealogy
Children's Crafts Adult Traditional Crafts Traditional Eastern Woodland Dance
Community Garden Seasonal Trips to Nipmuc Historic Sites